COLLECTION, USE AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

I understand and acknowledge that the collection, use and limited disclosure of personal information about me by the Indigenous Bar Association (IBA) is primarily for the purpose of completing the first Edition of the Indigenous Bar Association's Law Graduate Directory (IBA). Part of the IBA's mandate is to represent Indigenous legal professionals on provincial and national levels. The IBA's objectives also includes the provision of services and to provide relevant information to me by the IBA, its committees or any other organization authorized to do so by the IBA. I further understand that this will be done in a manner consistent with current Privacy laws and that the submission of this update constitutes my consent to such collection, use and limited disclosure. I understand that I may withdraw my consent to the disclosure of my personal information by the IBA to any other organization at any time and that it may be done now by checking the boxes below.

- I do not wish to have my personal information – including my year of graduation (both in Canada and outside of Canada), direct phone and fax numbers and ancestry - published in the print or online versions of the IBA Law Graduates Directory. I understand that by checking this box, only my business contact information will be listed in current or future editions of this publication.
- I do not wish the IBA to disclose my personal information to outside organizations seeking to provide services, products or information regarding Indigenous Law Graduates.

Information on the Indigenous Bar Association can be found at www.indigenousbar.ca, and information relating to the Indigenous Bar Association's Law Graduate Directory by contacting the IBA at the address below.
