

INDIGENOUS BAR ASSOCIATION

22ND ANNUAL FALL CONFERENCE OCTOBER 21 & 22, 2010

ORGANIZED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE FIRST NATIONS TAX COMMISSION
AND THE NATIVE LAW CENTRE OF CANADA

INDIGENOUS LAND REFORM IN CANADA

IBA GALA BANQUET & AWARDS CEREMONY

The Fairmont Hotel Vancouver,
Vancouver, BC

WWW.INDIGENOUSBAR.CA

October 21, 2010 - Day 1

Main plenary sessions include:

Collective Ownership of Lands:

The Alberta Métis Experience

Reconciling Indigenous and Crown Title

First Nation Land Codes

Report Card on Treaty Processes in Canada

Redressing Land Claims

Indigenous Land Rights at International Law

Urban Indigenous Land Development

Followed by:

IBA Annual General Meeting

October 22, 2010 - Day 2

Workshops

Indian Residential School - Independent

Assessment Process

Human Rights and Bill C-21

Using the UN Declaration and Other

International Law Mechanisms

Indigenous Legal Ethics

Treaties

IBA Student Day

Followed by:

IBA Gala Banquet & Awards Ceremony

For more information Contact:

Anne Chalmers

(613)224-1529 (ph)

(613) 224-1529 (fax)

achalmers@indigenousbar.ca

Approved by Law Society of BC for 10.5 CPD Credits

REGISTER EARLY AND SAVE!!

The first 100 people to register for the IBA's 22nd Annual Fall Conference will receive a complimentary registration for the October 20th conference "First Nations Property Ownership – It's Time" hosted by the First Nation Tax Commission (a cost savings of over $800!)

For more information visit the FNTC website at www.fntc.ca